

Anglo-Japanese Alliance is Now Being Relaxed

Britain, U. S. Japan and France Are Agreed to New Plan

All Drawing Against His Account

ONE SUICIDE CAUSED DEATH OF SECOND MAN

Remark of James McGady Was Not Realized by Visitor to His Room

Drank from Same Glass

After Trying to Help His Friend Was Himself Seized with Fatal Convulsions

One contemplated suicide caused the death of two men in Edmonton Friday night.

James McGady, Express hotel, held a glass to his lips shortly before eleven o'clock and remarked to his friend, James McDonald, who had called at his room: "Here goes another Scotchman!" He had taken a dose of strychnine and in a few moments was in the throes of death.

Immediately McGady had set down his glass, McDonald fell down his glass, McDonald fell down his glass, McDonald fell down his glass.

Break the Treaty Then Cool off Heat

Of Argument Before the Declaration of War is Made the Basis of Agreement

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Great Britain, Japan, the United States and France all have agreed in principle to the four-power treaty proposed as a substitute for the Anglo-Japanese alliance, the conditions of which will be announced at a plenary session of the armaments conference tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The treaty is brief, providing in direct terms for abrogation of the alliance and for a "cooling off" process, should war be threatened over questions of the Pacific islands. The details yet to be settled are said to involve only minor considerations.

It is the expectation of some of the delegates that the coming plenary session will also see a publicly announced agreement between the United States, Great Britain and Japan on the five-to-three naval ratio. Japan has not yet assented to it, but her cabinet is sitting in Tokyo with an apparent prospect of favorable action.

Head of Sinn Fein Might Resign

If Voting on Irish Settlement Plan Should Favor the Advocates of Peace

LONDON, Dec. 9.—After the first surprise occasioned by Eamonn DeValera's repudiation of the proposition for creating the Irish Free State, officials in both London and Dublin were occupied today mainly in canvassing the prospects for ratification of the Anglo-Irish treaty when it comes before the meeting of the Dail Eireann next Wednesday.

The balance of opinion in both cities appears to be that Arthur Griffith, as sponsor of the treaty, will obtain an effective majority, although it was admitted here that Mr. DeValera possesses a strong following and that the voting, therefore, may possibly be very close. If Mr. DeValera should be defeated in his fight against ratification, it is thought here that he may resign his position as head of the Sinn Fein.

Should matters develop into making a plebiscite of the people, it is thought there would not be the slightest doubt of a great majority in favor of the treaty.

At the special request of Lord Curzon, the address in reply to King George V's speech at the home of Lord Curzon, which will be made by Viscount Morley one of the oldest and most distinguished advocates of Irish home rule. He will make the motion for ratification. The motion will be seconded by Earl Curzon, who for many years has advocated a dominion settlement for Ireland.

Mr. Lloyd George and Premier Chamberlain, who held a long conference today which was participated in by several other ministers, including Lord Chamberlain, Birkenhead, Austen Chamberlain and Winston Churchill.

Nothing was made known regarding the result of the conference, and whether it will be followed by further meeting or not. It was supposed, however, that the Irish would go to do largely with matters of finance.

DUBLIN, Dec. 9.—The sensation following the revelation of a split in the Dail Eireann over the Anglo-Irish treaty, which was held in secret, has been intensified. There seems to be ground for the belief that Arthur Griffith, who headed the delegation which gained the agreement, will resign his position as head of the Sinn Fein.

Should matters develop into making a plebiscite of the people, it is thought there would not be the slightest doubt of a great majority in favor of the treaty.

For a South Side gathering there was an unusually good attendance at the municipal council meeting, at which Mayor Duggan made a "hit" at the K. K. Klansmen, who were present. The big school hall was quite full with an audience that estimated the greatest interest in the various propositions presented.

Mayor Duggan said that a public administration had been inaugurated by the city council, and that he was confident that the people would be satisfied by the results of the assessment.

ROGERS BLAMES UNION CONTROL FOR DEFEAT

By Responsibility for Present Condition of Conservative Party

The headquarters staff of the Irish Republican army is supposed to be a mad, Michael Collins, who was a member of the agreement, in which case a general policy of resistance to the British, since a large "portion" of the Irish members are men, who some time have belonged to the army.

It is not probable that he will make the best of the situation.

Today's conference was said to have been on the matter of election of the Dail Eireann, and concerning the granting of any concession to the British. A field trial of the bargain was made, and the result was said to have been that the British had been defeated.

The Daily Poem

Sometimes I think the things we see
Are the things of the things to be.

That every day we build
The things that have been built.

And every dream we thought
In Heaven still we thought.

Shrines and Churches of Quebec

Quebec, through her shrines and churches, proclaims that she was born and bred in the fold of the Roman Catholic Church. To-day, nearly three centuries since the Cross and flame of France were planted on the hills above the St. Lawrence, the religious institutions thus founded still flourish. Soft-footed nuns, cowled monks and flat-hatted priests are met on every hand as they go about their duties. Always the cross is in evidence—crude wayside shrines along the country roads and great golden crosses upon city spires.

Quebec City may be called the heart of this church in America for there is the Westminster, Notre Dame de la Paix, commonly known as the Basilica. It was founded in 1645 and holds the remains of nearly every Bishop of Quebec, also other ecclesiastics and notable pilgrims. In the Chapel of the Ursuline Convent burns a velvet lamp, the flame of which has burned unceasingly for thousands of years, since it was first lighted in 1717. Under this chapel rests Montcalm, France's defender of the City of Hills.

In a square among the little houses of Lower Town stands the opulent church of Notre Dame des Victoires, near the site where stood Champlain's house. A beautiful custom is maintained by the Franciscan Sisters' Convent in its office of perpetual adoration with two white veiled nuns ever kneeling before the altar.

The most widely known Quebec shrine is that of Ste. Anne de Beaupre in the little town of the same name, connected with Quebec City by electric train and motorway. This shrine, built in fulfillment of a vow made in 1850 by storm-harassed sailors to Ste. Anne, the mother of the Virgin, is famed for its cures. Each summer pilgrims come by the thousands, from far and near, to kneel before the miracle-working shrine.

Montreal, too, has its celebrated churches and shrines. Its Cathedral of Notre Dame, a $4,000,000 edifice, contains a bronze St. Peter which glimmers far to blue. Notre Dame Bon Secours has a unique chapel built above its roof, a replica of the miraculous structure at Loreto on the Adriatic, while the Virgin in Our Lady of Lourdes Church is, supposedly, shrouded in the shrine under the church is fitted like that of the famous Grotto at Lourdes in France.

At Ste. Anne's on the western end of the Island of Montreal, stands an ancient edifice, once the wealthiest church in Canada, at whose altar kneel expiatory and votary are committing themselves to the perils of the wilderness.

port us millions to get in and get out. I know what it will cost us to stay in. The fact however stares you in the face is that though some of the farmers think the farming business is on the footstool the trouble there are mighty few farmers on it. It is like the play of Hamlet with Hamlet left out. You can't have farms without farmers. You can't have farms in docks and harbors and ships and railways and raising the pay of our noble legislators, but not one cent can be spared for emigration to provide the farmers to raise the crops.

I can't blame the government for keeping out the undesirable, but you can't blame them for letting that class start at all. The trouble is your own.

My wife and her husband took a walk last Sunday afternoon to take a look at it. I bet they are paying taxes on it. Well they found it safe, sound and soundly made. They took a look at it and rubish the neighbors have thoughtfully contributed. What use is it to them? Worse than none until they build a home on it and make it their own. They are saving the capital and labor both. They are saving the capital month by month and getting it by labor. That's the way we

A young man called on his sweet heart one evening. They were sitting on the sofa, and he remarked:

"Smile, dearest, so that I can see your pearly, white teeth."

A voice called out from the doorway:

"Take them out, Sils, and let him have a good look at them."

BERKSHIRE HOG HAS TENDENCY TO BACON TYPE

Bred With Smooth Quarters And Longer Sides—Improvement During Past Few Years

It has been claimed that a tendency to leaner sides is noticeable in the Berkshire breed in Canada within the last few years. Commenting on the bacon class awards at the Canadian National Exhibition, an agricultural writer states that the Berkshire "has shown very satisfactory improvement in the past few years, the heavy shoulder and ham giving way to smoother quarters, with increased length between, making them more suitable for the production of Wilshire sides."

The comment brings right into the foreground the fact that the main reason for the improvement in the Berkshire breed is the fact that the breed has been bred with smooth quarters and longer sides. The improvement during the past few years has been due to the fact that the breed has been bred with smooth quarters and longer sides.

Information and Suggestions For Persons Entering the Bulletin $10,000 "Opportunity Club" Contest

The first thing to do is to make up your mind you are going to win the Grand Prize, which will be a choice of either a "Special Six" five-passenger Studebaker touring car or $2,000 in cash. The retail value of the Studebaker car is $1,400. You start in and secure every 500 vote coupon and every subscription to The Morning Bulletin, The Evening Bulletin, and The Semi-Weekly Bulletin you can get.

Five Thousand Votes are allowed with each subscription and only one nomination allowed for each candidate. The one nomination allowed for each candidate. Call all your friends and tell them you are in The Bulletin "Opportunity Club" Competition. Ask them to send you 100 vote coupons for you. Also their subscriptions. If you wait any time in worrying about your opponents. You will be losing subscriptions while they are getting them.

If a subscriber's paper does not expire until January, or some other date, he may pay up another year and have his paper extended from the date of expiration. The winner of the Grand Prize will be barred from winning any of the District Prizes. This means that if District No. 3 wins the Grand Prize the second highest in District No. 2 wins the first prize in said district. The same rule applies to District Nos. 1 and 2.

A renewal subscription is one who has been taking The Morning Bulletin or The Evening Bulletin prior to the commencement of this campaign. Keep account of your own votes. The schedule of votes is printed on the front cover of all regular issue of the Bulletin. No. 5122, or write us, as we want to give you every assistance.

A firm of chartered accountants will audit all votes, thus insuring a square deal to all persons taking part in the competition.

A vote certificate will be mailed to you immediately upon receipt of your subscription. Be sure and give correct addresses of all your subscribers. Other votes have secured are subscription, go right after another. Never take "No" for an answer. You are accurate. It will take votes to win. You will have dull days. Don't get discouraged. Just make up your mind you are going to win one of the four automobiles and be determined to win.

One Hundred Dollars in cash will be given to the subscriber who guesses the correct number of votes nearest the correct number of votes that will win the Grand Prize. One guess will be given for each dollar paid in an subscription.

Candidates may take subscriptions anywhere. You are not confined to your own district. The competition is open to all. Name and address of every person taking part in this campaign must be exact correct. Candidates will not be allowed to transfer from one district to another.

The five vote coupons are good to the end of the campaign.
